Pirates Aboard! Admitted Student Day

Pirates Aboard! Admitted Student Day is geared specifically toward admitted students and their families. Admitted students and their guests will participate in a full day of sessions, including time spent with faculty, advisors, and students from their intended major; information sessions from financial aid, housing, dining, and student life; campus tours; and an opportunity to visit the different styles of residence halls. Additional information specific to transfer students will be available as well. Learn more at: ecu.edu/admissions/piratesaboard

Pirates Aboard! is for admitted students and takes place Saturday, April 2, from 8:00am to 4:00pm at Minges Coliseum (Williams Arena) on ECU's Campus in Greenville, NC.

M.A.D.E. Day: An Event for Prospective Transfer and Graduate School Students

This event is open to prospective students, as well as community college professionals, who may be interested in attending East Carolina University. Featured sessions include: the admissions, financial aid, and scholarship process; the ECU transition; a current student panel; and the Academics and Organizations Fair. Register to attend at: ecu.edu/MADEatECU

M.A.D.E. (Multicultural Appreciation Day Experience) Day will take place Friday, March 18, from 1:00pm to 5:00pm at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium (Club Level).

Admitted Transfer Student Checklist

Do your admitted transfer students have questions about their next steps to becoming a Pirate? If so, please have them visit the Admitted Transfer Student Checklist to view a complete list of items that they will need to complete prior to attending ECU in the fall.

A Transfer Summit Thank You

On behalf of East Carolina University and Pitt Community College, we extend our sincere gratitude to everyone who attended the Transfer Summit on February 11. It was a great success due to your participation and support of our transfer population. We are looking forward to hosting the event again next year!

Stay Connected to ECU

All students interested in ECU are encouraged to create an online Admissions Portal account at ecu.edu/admissions. This portal is designed to help students personalize their admissions experience. Once created, students can: apply for admission; track their admission status; receive information pertaining to their specific academic interests; and sign up for tours and other events.

Transfer Tour Visits

Prospective transfer students are invited to visit our campus and take part in one of many special information sessions designed just for transfer students, each followed by a walking tour of our beautiful campus. Students may register via ecu.edu/admissions/visit.cfm for the following dates:

- Friday, March 18, 2016, starting at 2:00pm; Whichard Building on ECU’s Main Campus in Greenville, NC.
- Friday, April 8, 2016, starting at 2:00pm; Whichard Building on ECU’s Main Campus in Greenville, NC.
- Friday, May 13, 2016, starting at 2:00pm; Whichard Building on ECU’s Main Campus in Greenville, NC.

If you have a community college group that would like to visit and are not able to attend one of the above dates, please contact us at transfer@ecu.edu to coordinate a separate date to visit us.

Transfer Living Learning Community

QUEST is a transfer living learning community designed to promote transfer student success through academics, engagement, wellness, and leadership. This is an excellent opportunity for transfer students to have extra support as they transition to life on campus as a Pirate.

Please refer your students to the Quest LLC webpage for detailed information. Applications will be available starting in March.
