Activities Interests and Relationships @ East Carolina University

This system is for use by ECU Investigators, Inventors and Administrators in identifying circumstances that may give rise to potential conflicts of interest related to research, technology transfer or administrative responsibilities.

For each University research project (sponsored or unsponsored), the Project-Specific Conflict of Interest Disclosure form must be timely filed for each University employee, student or trainee involved in the design, conduct or reporting of the research project for whom one or more of the answers posed in the disclosure form is "yes". The University PI is obligated to ensure that any potential conflict of interest that exists in relation to the research project is reported as required by this University policy.

Faculty and staff in certain administrative positions responsible for resource allocation, personnel decisions, business contracts, purchasing, technology transfer, and other sensitive activities are required to complete an annual questionnaire regarding external relationships that might create or be perceived to create conflicts of interest with their University responsibilities.
