

ATHLETIC REQUIREMENTS

According to NCAA regulations, students must maintain strict standards of satisfactory progress. The most important information for advisors to know is that student athletes can never drop below full-time status or they automatically become ineligible for their sport. (The only exception would be if students are in their last semester and need fewer than 12 hours to graduate.)

If you have questions, please contact 737-4552.