

BA DEGREE vs. BS DEGREE

The BA degree requires 4 semesters of a foreign language and requires a minor. With the BA degree, you are able to obtain a broader knowledge of different areas.

The BS degree does not usually require a foreign language—though there are some exceptions (also some do require a minor; check your specific major for details). The BS degree offers a more specialized degree in your major because you are taking more courses in your major field.