PERSON PRESIDING: George Bailey, Chair of GEIE

REGULAR MEMBERS IN ATTENDANCE: Beth Chaney, Anna Froula, Purificación Martínez, Paul Schwager, Debra Kosko (phone)

EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS IN ATTENDANCE: Jody Baumgartner, Jean-Luc Scemama, Mary Beth Corbin, Ying Zhou, Jen-Scott Mobley

ACTIONS OF THE MEETING:

1. The meeting was called to order by Chair Bailey at 2:00 pm

2. Dr. Mary Beth Corbin, resource person, Division of Student Affairs, presented on the work and outreach of Student Affairs and the possibilities of future partnerships on developing initiatives that combine student affair activities and classroom experiences.

3. The committee recommended the adoption of following policy to the Faculty Senate:

   “Unless prohibited by a degree program requirement, credit hours earned in one general education area (humanities, fine arts, social sciences, natural sciences or mathematics) may count towards a major in that area.”

4. Discussion of recommending to the Faculty Senate the reduction of the diversity credit requirement from one three-hour Domestic Diversity Course and one three-hour Global Diversity course to either one three-hour Domestic Diversity Course or one three-hour Global Diversity course. The committee needs more information concerning the numbers of available classes and how ECU arrived at a backlog of need for GD/DD classes.

5. The GEIE Teaching Evaluation sub-committee has met to discuss the use of student comments in teaching evaluation and will meet to discuss language for recommendations of evaluating teaching, specifically proposing revisions to the Faculty Manual, Part VIII, III, beginning at

   “The evaluation of probationary term and permanently tenured faculty shall be based upon that year’s duties and responsibilities (except data from the previous year's Spring semester survey of student opinion) and shall consider:

   1. Teaching…”

   and ending at

   “F. other procedures provided for in unit codes.”

8. With no further business, the meeting adjourned at 2:55 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Anna Froula
