Re: Class Make-up Clarification & Communication

The purpose of this communication is to clarify the agreed upon make-up days for classes missed due to winter weather closings this term.

- Tuesday, April 29th is the make-up day for classes missed on Thursday, January 30th. April 29th was previously a class day designated as a Friday make-up day on the approved academic calendar.
- Wednesday, April 30th is the make-up day for classes missed on Wednesday, January 29th. April 30th was previously Reading Day on the approved academic calendar.

All other class sessions should be made up by alternative assignments relevant to classes missed and chosen at the discretion of the faculty. Please be advised that Friday, April 18th remains a state holiday on the approved academic calendar and will not be used as a class make-up day. The makeup days are summarized in the table below.

April 18-19, Friday-Saturday	State Holiday (no classes)
