NOMINATING COMMITTEE FOR FACULTY OFFICERS REPORT
ELECTION OF FACULTY OFFICERS

Candidate for Chair of the Faculty

Marianna Walker, College of Allied Health Sciences

As Chair of the Faculty, I have advocated for having faculty at the table when discussing academic matters of importance and involving the standing University academic committees in reviews of matters under their purview. During 2010-11, faculty have been involved in many initiatives requiring increased levels of commitment. Recently the Chancellor charged two academic committees to play key roles in addressing the budget situation and potential effects on academic programs. I am appreciative of the Chancellor's positive responses to our request to increase faculty involvement in a myriad of critical decisions involving academic matters at this time.

I am especially grateful to the faculty who, in addition to traditional responsibilities (teaching, research, and service), have stepped up when asked to get involved. The need for faculty engagement will be equally intense during the 2011/2011 academic year and I will work to see that faculty continue to maintain this level of involvement and communication with administration. Faculty must maintain an active role in the protection of our academic programs. The Faculty Senate will reorganize the ECU Faculty Manual and continue to address issues relating to online teaching standards and curriculum issues, retention, and SACS accreditation.

If re-elected as Chair of the Faculty, I will continue to advocate for the faculty, maintain a strong faculty voice, and facilitate discourse between faculty and administration in all university issues. I have enjoyed working for the faculty and thank you for the privilege of serving as your leader for the past two years.

Candidate for Vice Chair of the Faculty

Mark Sprague, Department of Physics

I have served as Vice Chair of the Faculty for the last two years, and in that capacity I have been an advocate for transparency and faculty participation in important policy decisions. I serve as an elected member on Academic Standards and the Hearing Committee. I represent the Chair of the Faculty on the Graduate School Advisory Board. I am a member of the Faculty Manual Advisory Committee, the SACS Faculty Workgroup, the SACS QEP Council, and the Patent Committee. I also represent ECU on the UNC Faculty Assembly and serve on the Faculty Assembly Executive Committee. Much of our effort this year have been on faculty manual revisions, which are nearing completion, but now we must decide how we will organize the new manual in a way that it is accessible to everyone. Perhaps the most critical issues facing ECU next year are those involving budget cuts. The Faculty Officers regularly meet with the Chancellor and Academic Council to discuss faculty-related issues. This year many of these discussions have focused on the budget. The budget will likely be the main focus at these meetings next year as well. We face important decisions about short-term and long-term budget cuts, and it is important for faculty to be involved in the discussions. If I am reelected, I will continue to advocate for faculty and the academic core at these meetings and in every aspect of my duties. Thank you for the opportunity to serve in this important leadership role.

Candidates for Secretary of the Faculty

Nelson Cooper, College of Health and Human Performance

I am pleased to be nominated as a candidate for Secretary of the Faculty for the 2011-2012 term. My 18 years of experiences at East Carolina University include perspectives as a Graduate Assistant, a fixed-term Instructor, a probationary Assistant Professor, and a tenured Associate Professor in the Department of Recreation and Leisure Studies. I am entering a second term as a faculty senator for the College of Health and Human Performance. In addition to serving on departmental personnel, search, assessment, and program review committees, I have also successfully fulfilled responsibilities as an officer in a state professional association. In 2009 I completed the ECU Chancellor's Leadership Academy, and I also served as a member of the 2010-2011 Faculty Senate Agenda Committee. All of these experiences have provided me a comprehensive perspective of the University culture. Serving as Secretary of the Faculty would be an exciting next step to apply the leadership skills I have developed through these experiences. Faculty governance is a tremendous responsibility, requires sincere contribution, and greatly contributes to the foundation of an excellent University. If elected, I am prepared to work diligently to assure an accurate and consistent record of Faculty Senate business is maintained. In addition, as one of three Faculty Officers I am prepared to represent the ECU faculty with the integrity and diversity expected of me.

Hunt McKinnon, Department of Interior Design and Merchandising

I would like to be re-elected as Secretary of the Faculty for three straightforward reasons-

- 1) Continuity: I think the lean budget period we are now experiencing makes it very important to keep the officers that are now in place working without interruption through the summer. This is not the time to initiate new officers because many administrative decisions will be made with or without the voice of the faculty this summer.
- 2) Capability: The job of the Secretary is more than keeping the minutes. He or she meets with the other officers and with administrators on a weekly basis; there is a responsibility to be clear and to help develop consensus as well as to write the journal of what we are now experiencing
- 3) Diversity: The position of Secretary is the only office that can be filled by a fixed term faculty member. This 30.5 % of the faculty (1) that is currently the most vulnerable to being dismissed as if they were casual labor. I believe in the notion that East Carolina University should continue to be a true Community of Scholars and thus that people with different teaching, clinical, and research interest should be welcomed here.

Thus, I am running for re-election based upon the difference that my perspective brings to the job , and my interest and proven ability.

(1) Information furnished by the Provost in the Faculty Senate on January 25, 2011 incorporated into the minutes of the Faculty Senate Meeting.

Andrew Morehead, Department of Chemistry

Why have I chosen to run for the office of Secretary of the Faculty, and more to the point, why should you vote for me? To the former question, I have chosen to run because I have had a long-term interest and belief in strategic planning, shared governance, and service to the university. I believe there is a balance between teaching, research, and service. Each of us should strive to maximize our impact on the academy in all those areas, but most particularly in our area of strength, and those efforts should be rewarded. I also believe we are stronger as a group than we will be individually. To the second question I pose above (Why should you vote for me?), I would tell you that I am a person who has always believed in open lines of communication and a thoughtful consideration of the benefits and weaknesses of any move. I am a pragmatist who recognizes that no choice is ever without flaws and that the people who comprise an organization as complex as a university will never unanimously agree on anything. We simply must choose the best option. Finally, I believe that the most important question to ask to determine what option is "best" is this: how is this good for our students? And I believe that we should never choose a path unless the answer to this question is affirmative: is this good for our students?
