University Athletics Committee

Committee Functions:

The Committee is concerned with issues pertaining to intercollegiate athletics at East Carolina University.

The Committee's primary functions are oversight responsibility in the area of academic integrity, compliance with NCAA rules and regulations, and the overall development of student athletes.

The Committee is also concerned with general issues such as budget, conference matters, fund-raising, and public relations are inclusive in the charge, but not restricted to those cited.

The Academic Integrity Subcommittee, composed of the faculty members on the committee, will report on the academic quality of the athletic program.

The Committee reviews at least annually those sections within the University Undergraduate Catalog that corresponds to the Committee's charge and recommends changes as necessary.

NCAA Research on Student Athletes: GOALS and SCORE studies:

Student athletes are actively engaged in their academic experience both in and out of the classroom.
The majority of student-athletes view themselves more as athletes than as students.
Report they are actively engaged in their campus community outside of athletics and believe athletics participation has benefited them socially.
Believe their participation has had a positive influence on their health.
Commit large amounts of time to both athletic and academic endeavors
Softball: Athletic hours: 37/week. Academic hours: 38/week.
Gender Equity Subcommittee

The NCAA Gender Equity Task Force states "an athletic program is gender equitable when the men's sports program would be pleased to accept for its own overall participation, opportunities and resources currently allocated to the women's program and vice versa."

The basis for the analysis and conclusions presented in this report were the:
- 2002-07 Gender Equity Five-Year Plan (2002 NCAA Recertification Self-Study)
- Salary and budget data provided by the department of athletics
- Data collected from a survey of the 13 head coaches
- Data collected from a survey of female athletes (110 of 166 eligible student-athletes responded)
- Data from a tour of the athletic facilities
- Review of the organizational chart provided by the department of athletics
- Other information provided by athletic department administrators

Summary of findings:

- ECU is essentially in compliance with Title IX in relation to athletic participation.
- There are substantial inequities with regard to athletics facilities.
- Females are underrepresented in both athletics administration and coaching staffs.
- Female athletes perceive that their accomplishments are not publicized adequately.
- Academic support is available on an equitable basis.
- Athletic training and sports medicine support is available on an equitable basis.
