East Carolina University is committed to the equality of educational opportunity and does not discriminate against applicants, students, or employees based on race, color, national origin, religion, gender, age, creed, sexual orientation, or disability. An equal opportunity/affirmative action university, which accommodates the needs of individuals with disabilities.

Students Come First

The student experience is the most important focus at East Carolina University. From first year to graduate level, our students are taught by experienced faculty members. We take a hands-on, personal approach to student development. It is an approach that emphasizes useful experiences that will prepare a student for the challenges of life. Learning does not end in the classroom; research is not confined to the lab. The acquisition of knowledge is not enough; it must be applied. At East Carolina, we recognize that the primary reason students attend college is to prepare for a career. We embrace this real-world responsibility and seek to prepare our students to realize their dreams and aspirations through academic and student life programs.

This brochure gives an overview of the boundless opportunities you can experience on your way to a brighter tomorrow. Be sure to visit us online using the Web site addresses for more details.

Wide Variety of Programs

At East Carolina University, you can choose from more than 100 undergraduate majors designed to give students the knowledge and skills they need to ensure a bright future. Our nationally recognized programs in teacher education, health care, and the fine and performing arts are joined by rapidly growing programs in business, engineering, industry, and technology.

Vibrant Campus, Countless Activities

At East Carolina, you'll find a campus alive with excitement and activity. You'll be a part of an energetic and engaged community with an intense loyalty to their school. Choose from more than 250 student organizations, including the International Student Association, that will help you and your classmates get involved, meet new people, and find support. Enjoy a vibrant fine and performing arts scene by attending any of the hundreds of plays, exhibitions, concerts, and other gatherings and a number of cultural events, including World Celebration Day and International Education Week events.

Location

The campus is located in Greenville, North Carolina, a growing city of more than 70,000 people that is a business, cultural, educational, and medical hub in the eastern part of the state. From ECU, it is just less than a two-hour drive to both the state capital, Raleigh, to the west, and Atlantic Coast beaches to the east.

Climate

Greenville is the county seat of Pitt County, which has a relatively mild climate and experiences all four seasons each year. The average summer temperature is 29 degrees Celsius, while the average winter temperature is 7 degrees Celsius.

On-Campus Housing and Dining

East Carolina students live in one of 15 residence halls, eat in a variety of restaurants and cafés, and choose from countless events and services all year long. We have plenty of options to suit your interests and tastes.

If you choose to live on campus, we will have the right options for you based on your needs and lifestyle. All of our residence halls come with beds, desks, baths, and laundry facilities. Rooms come with high-speed Internet connections and cable TV.

Residents enjoy living on campus for its collegiate feel and quiet places to study. You'll have convenient access to the buildings that you'll frequent during your time at East Carolina.

Two all-you-care-to-eat dining halls serve up enough options to satisfy any appetite. Four food courts, two convenience stores, four coffee bars, and one juice bar on campus also will keep you well fed. Whether you are in the mood for a hearty breakfast, a quick lunch, a sit-down dinner, or a late-night snack, we've got what you're looking for.
