
EdS – Educational Leadership

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AT EAST CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

Program of Study:

PHASE ONE: 18 Semester Hour Core

Students entering the EDS Program will complete 18 s.h. of coursework in the following order over four (or more) semesters. The courses will be delivered using online instructional strategies.

Semester 1	LEED 7420: Theories of Educational Administration (3 sh)
Semester 2	LEED 7429: Problems in Educational Supervision (3 sh) LEED 7483: Advanced School Law (2 sh)
Semester 3	LEED 7470: School Business Management (3 sh) LEED 7410: Staff Personnel Problems (2 sh)
Semester 4	LEED 7460: School and Community Cultures (3 sh) LEED 7472: Issues, Problems, and Research in Education (2 sh)

PHASE TWO: 20 semester hours

Phase Two includes three required courses (8 sh), an internship and field study (8 sh), and a thesis or directed readings (4 sh). The schedule and the focus of the internship, field study, and thesis or directed readings would be tailored to the individual student's professional interests and career goals. Courses would be selected from the following list. For unique professional needs, appropriate courses could be selected from outside the Department of Educational Leadership.

As with Phase One, LEED courses would be delivered using online instructional strategies.

When students are ready to begin Phase Two of the EDS Program, they will work with the Ed.S. Coordinator, face-to-face or electronically, to develop an individualized plan/schedule for completing the 20 semester hours of coursework.
