The Center for Sustainable Tourism presents the third webinar in our Renewable Energy in Tourism series. This free webinar will focus on a review of financial issues for renewable energy projects at accommodations and attractions including financing options, expected ROI's of various renewable energy systems, and new ways to improve a systems ROI or payback period.

The webinar will feature two renewable energy guest experts:

- Tim Gasper, Solutions Engineer, Brady Trane. Mr. Gasper will be discussing the financial realities of energy efficiency for tourism businesses.
- Joanna Malcolm, Director of Communications, FLS Energy. Ms. Malcolm will be discussing the financial realities associated with renewable energy systems and their use in the tourism industry.
