

Women's Heritage Month at ECU March 2009

Throughout the month in Joyner Library:

Women's Heritage Month Book and Video Exhibit produced by Leigh Younce and "Sweetening the Sour Apple: Celebrating Women's Heritage Month," an art exhibit coordinated by Susan Luddeke (featured artist for this poster).

Monday, March 2

Keynote Event: "Surviving the Holocaust: The Story of Nesse Godin"

Nesse Godin, is a survivor of the Shauliai, Lithuania Ghetto, the Stutthof Concentration Camp, four labor camps and a death march. She has dedicated her adult life to teaching and sharing memories of the Holocaust. Godin comes to ECU to share her incredible story. Sponsors: Co-Curricular Programs and Cultural Outreach, VSLC, Campus Recreation and Wellness, Ethnic Studies, Student Activities Board, and ECU Hillel. For questions and more information about Holocaust Awareness Day events call 328-6050.

8 p.m., Hendrix Theatre, Passport Approved Event!

Wednesday, March 4

"Power in the Pearls"

The Committee on the Status of Women recognize the 2009 Women of Distinction. This is a biannual event sponsored by the Committee. 4-6 p.m., Joyner Library, 2nd Floor Exhibit Area

March 16-20

"V" Week

V-Week is a global movement to stop violence against women and girls. ISCA invites you to join us throughout the week as we create safe spaces and work to end violence against women through activism and education. Events will include: Screening and discussion of "If These Walls Could Talk;" Screening of "Can She Be Saved?" with discussion led by the filmmaker, Yasmin Shiraz; V-Day Jeopardy; and "Keeping It Clean" presented by Shawnte McMillan, Health Educator at Student Health Services. Contact the Ledonia Wright Cultural Center for more info: www.ecu.edu/studentlife/lwcc/March-2009-Events

Tuesday, March 24

Film and Discussion: "Iron Jawed Angels"

"Iron Jawed Angels" recounts for a contemporary audience a key chapter in U.S. history: in this case, the struggle of suffragists who fought for the passage of the 19th Amendment which gave women the right to vote. The film stars Hilary Swank (as Alice Paul) and Frances O'Connor (as Lucy Burns). Discussion will be facilitated by Dr. Karin Zipf (History) and Dr. Donna Kain (English) of Women Studies.

7 p.m., Joyner 2409, Administrative Conference Room

Thursday, March 26

"Celebrating Diverse Ambition, Service and Leadership"

On Founders' Day, join us for high tea as we discover and celebrate the road to public service as told by two of Greenville's long-standing political women, Mayor Pro-Tem, Mildred Council; and Councilwoman Rose Glover.

4 p.m., Please email diversity@ecu.edu for an invitation

Friday, March 27

LWCC Day - Enjoy a day with The Ledonia Wright Cultural Center as we celebrate the history of our namesake, Professor Ledonia S. Wright. We will recognize the winners of the Ledonia Wright Memorial Essay Contest and the S.O.U.L.S. Memorial Award. These two recognitions will coincide with the message of inspiration and hope provided by our guest speaker, Ms. Nikki Giovanni at 7 p.m. in Wright Auditorium with a public reception to follow immediately. Admission: $5-Children and ECU Students; $15-All Others.

Tuesday, March 31

Public Meeting of Famous Women

Female students stationed throughout campus, reading famous speeches by women--a continuous succession of readers continuing all day. Students walking through campus can hear snippets of speeches or stop to hear entire speeches. Also, a Re-enactment of the Susan B. Anthony Trial will be performed. Sponsored by Women Studies.

Tuesday, March 31

"Speak Your Mind": OID Diversity Discussion and Dinner

A discussion of women's issues at ECU open to campus and community members who have attended events throughout the month.

5:30 p.m., Please email diversity@ecu.edu for an invitation.