

The NC League of Municipalities, in partnership with the East Carolina University Rural Community Consortium, invites you to attend the

Community Development Block Grant Disaster Recovery Housing Basics Workshop

WHO: Municipal Elected Officials, City and Town Managers, Clerks, Finance Officers and Community Development/Planning Directors from areas affected by Hurricane Matthew

WHAT: CDBG-DR Housing Basics Workshop for communities impacted by Hurricane Matthew (Registration is FREE, and lunch is provided)

Instruction and practical application exercises related to:

- Basics of the CDBG-DR funding program for Hurricane Matthew-impacted cities and towns.
- Basic fiduciary responsibilities for municipal boards, regulations and important definitions.
- Types of housing activities that are eligible under the program.
- Important financial administration and compliance information related to housing program management that are needed to undertake successful CDBG DR projects.

WHEN: Thursday, February 23, 2017,
Registration: 9:30 a.m. | Workshop: 10:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m.

WHERE: Willis Building, East Carolina University | 300 East 1st Street | Greenville, NC

WHY: North Carolina has received $198 million in Community Development Block Grant - Disaster Recovery funding from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. The CDBG-DR funding is for assistance with long-term housing and housing-related impacts of Hurricane Matthew. This workshop will teach attendees the program management basics for successful projects funded by the grant.

Register online at www.nclm.org