FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

$2,000 ECU MOLDIN SCHOLARSHIP
APPLICATION NOW AVAILABLE FOR CHEMISTRY AND BIOLOGY MAJORS
APRIL 3 DEADLINE

GREENVILLE, N.C. (March 18, 2009) — East Carolina University's Thomas Harriot College of Arts and Sciences' Scholarship Selection Committee is accepting applications for the Moldin Scholarship, to be awarded for the 2009–10 academic year. Applications are due by Friday, April 3.

The Moldin Scholarship, established in 2006 by ECU alumni Richard and Nancy Moldin, provides a $2,000 annual scholarship to two rising juniors enrolled full time in the Department of Chemistry or the Department of Biology.

To apply for the Moldin Scholarship, students must be enrolled as a full-time junior for the 2009–10 academic year, majoring in chemistry or biology, with a minimum 2.5 GPA and demonstrate financial need, as verified by the Office of Student Financial Aid.

The $2,000 annual scholarship award shall be for one academic year – $1,000 each semester – and is renewable through the recipient's senior year, upon maintenance of the scholarship eligibility criteria.

Students interested in applying for the scholarship should complete an application form, available from the chair of their department.

Application forms and supporting documents must be returned by April 3, to:

East Carolina University
Thomas Harriot College of Arts and Sciences
c/o Dr. Michael Brown
1002 Bate Building
Greenville, NC 27858.

Scholarship recipients will be notified by April 17.

Mr. Richard Moldin is an employee of Metrics, Inc., in Greenville. He received his bachelor of science and master of science degrees in chemistry from ECU in 1970 and '73, respectively, as well as a master in business administration in '76. Ms. Nancy Moldin is a 1973 graduate of the ECU School of Music, with a bachelor of music degree in music education. The Moldins reside in Wilmington, N.C.
