The Ethnic Studies Film Series, Fall 2015

120 Days
Tuesday, Sept 22nd
6:00 pm to 8:30 pm, Joyner East 201
Presented by Director: Ted Roach
Post-screening Discussion Planned

120 Days captures an intimate look at the lives of one family of undocumented immigrants who have lived and worked in the United States illegally for twelve years.

Directed by Ted Roach

“He pulled over...at that moment I said to myself, I’ll never be able to come back to see my family.”

Seeking Asian Female
Tuesday, November 10th
6:30 pm to 8:30 pm, Sci-Tech Building 207
Guest Speaker: Dr. Jing Yang
Post-screening Discussion Planned

Two strangers -- an elderly American man and a young Chinese woman -- pursue a marriage brokered by the internet, but they get more than they bargained for when she moves across the Pacific to start a new life with him in America.

Directed by Debbie Lum

“China is just amazing right now, the vitality, the growth, and there’s an endless supply of women over there!”

Welcome
Tuesday, December 1st
6:30 pm to 8:30 pm, Sci-Tech Building 207
Guest Speaker: Dr. Susan Pearce
Post-screening Discussion Planned

Bilal is 17 years old, a Kurdish boy from Iraq. He sets off on an adventure-filled journey across Europe. The boy soon discovers that his trip won’t be as easy as he imagined.

Directed Philippe Lioret

“He walked 4000km to find her. He’ll swim the Channel. I couldn’t even cross the road to get you back.”