

GRBK 2000

The Great Books of Love

The faculty in Great Books are pleased to offer an introductory seminar on the theme of love from antiquity to the 20th century. Each week a different member of the faculty will be present as a guest to participate in discussion. Works to be read include:

- * Poems of Sappho with Tricia Wilson Okamura
- * Euripides' Hippolytus with John Given
- * Plato's Symposium with John Stevens
- * The Correspondence of Abelard & Eloise with Kevin Moll
- * Petrarch with Charles Fantazzi
- * The sonnets of John Donne with David Wilson-Okamura
- * Racine's Phèdre with Elizabeth Layman
- * Denis Diderot's "The Indiscreet Jewels" and
- * Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice with Anoush Terjanian
- * Evelyn Waugh's Brideshead Revisited with John Stevens

Fall 2005
Tuesdays 5-8 pm
Instructor: A.
Terjanian