The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that more than 650,000 have died from AIDS and that 1.2 million people in the United States are living with HIV. This year’s ceremony honors the memory of lives lost and shares stories of determination and survival.

Presented by the LGBT Resource Office in partnership with the Ledonia Wright Cultural Center, and Campus Recreation and Wellness.

A Premier Wellness Passport Event

A Promise To Remember

World AIDS Day

December 1, 2015
7PM Hendrix Theater

East Carolina University