

When a corporation, foundation, institution, or organization requests an LOI first consult with your College ADR prior to submitting your initial intent to apply. Requirements need to be reviewed in advance and under the guidance of the ADR.

A RAMSeS file is not required for letters of intent or pre-applications that do not require a match or a budget as part of the letter of intent or pre-application package.