

Be different! Study a unique language!

- Russian is beautiful to hear and speak. Study Russian with a native speaker!
- The Cyrillic alphabet is cool: it's like a secret code.
- Russian is the fifth most frequently spoken language in the world (after Mandarin Chinese, English, Hindi, and Spanish).
- Russian is one of the six official and working languages of the UN.
- Over a quarter of the world's scientific literature is published in Russian.
- Russia is still the biggest country in the world.
- Russia is an incredible land of contrasts and will always be a country of strategic importance to the American economy and global security.
- Great career opportunities combining Russian and business, law, international studies, political science, security studies, natural resources, social work, nursing, education, history, art, communication, engineering... and more!
- Russia is a great place to visit! The Kremlin in Moscow, the Hermitage in St.Petersburg, the Volga-river in Saratov, the Urals in Yekaterinburg...
- Study abroad and make Russian friends: Russian friendship last a lifetime.
- Learn Russian to read Dostoevsky, Tolstoy and Chekhov. Russian is a native language of Tchaikovsky and Mussorgsky, Rachmaninoff and Stravinsky, Mendeleev and Gagarin, Stanislavsky and Eisenstein, Kandinsky and Chagall, Nijinsky and Balanchine... Russian culture is exciting!

RUSSIAN 1001

Dr. Elena K. Murenina

For more information please contact:

mureninae@ecu.edu

230B Ragsdale
Dept. of Foreign Languages & Literatures,
(252) 328 5521