FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ECU Sociology Students, Faculty to Present at 78th Annual Meeting of Southern Sociological Society

GREENVILLE, N.C. (March 23, 2015) — March 25-28, 2015 four faculty from the Department of Sociology, 10 graduate students, five undergraduate students and two alumni will be presenting at the 78th Annual Meeting of the Southern Sociological Society (SSS) in New Orleans, LA. This year’s meeting theme is “Stalled Revolutions? Gender Inequality in the 21st Century.”

Several ECU presenters will participate in paper, roundtable and poster sessions to discuss research focusing on gender inequality, including sexual assault. Others are presenting research on a broad range of topics including social impacts of the digital divide, mysogynoir, the impact of student volunteer work, NC’s environmental movement, and attitudes toward the Confederate flag.

For additional information, contact Marieke Van Willigen, interim chair of sociology, at 252-328-6092 or vanwilligenm@ecu.edu.
