Center for Scientific Review is more than just a place to find who is on study section…
The NIH Center for Scientific Review provides numerous resources to principal investigators and research administrators. Subscribe to the Peer Review Notes (PRN) listserv to keep up with resources and information. Learn Do’s and Don’ts for the new NIH Biosketch, how the increased NIH budget impacts peer review, and find the latest webinar videos on how applications are reviewed.

Welcome…

Stephanie Hendrix from Communication Sciences & Disorders is spotlighted on the Office of Research website for the month of February. Learn more about Stephanie and what she likes about ECU!

Highlights

• Congratulations to Ning Zhou! She was recently awarded an NIH R03 grant, “Assessing non-invasive measures of neural health in cochlear implant users and the clinical implications.”

• The HSIM Computational Lab has a new website. Check it out and learn more about Dr. Hylock’s research, lab, personnel, and how to get involved.

• Congratulations to Sarah Faucette! Sara is audiology doctoral student in CSDI. She was awarded a joint AuD externship traineeship funded by the Veterans Health Administration Office of Academic Affiliations. Her externship site will be the VA Portland Health Care System in Portland, OR.

• Student Travel Awards are available from the Office of Research. The deadline for Spring semester requests is February 15, 2016.

Funding & Research Opportunities

2016-2017 Intramural Grant Opportunities

Interdisciplinary Research Collaboration Awards
February 29, 2016
Seed funding to support interdisciplinary research projects that will lead to competitive applications for extramural funding.

Faculty Reassignment Awards
February 29, 2016
Provides funds to departments to reassign faculty effort during the 2016-17 academic year to apply for extramural funding. 9-month and 12-month faculty are eligible.

NIDCD Changes the early career funding mechanism
February 26, June 28, October 26
NIDCD has replaced the Small Grant Program (R03) with the NIDCD Early Career Research Award (R21).

Planning to submit a grant proposal in the next month or two?
It is never too early to begin working on your grant proposal. Contact Stephanie Hendrix (hendrixs@ecu.edu) for assistance with your budget, documents, and navigating RAMSeS.