

Professors Xiaoming Zeng and Paul Bell have been awarded a $50,000 grant from the UNC General Administration to develop a new online graduate-level certificate program in Health Informatics at ECU. This innovative online certificate program will be one of the first of its kind in this rapidly expanding field.