Brody Scholars Program Schedule for 2018 - 2019

The Brody Scholar program is made possible through a generous donation from the Brody Family and the Brody Foundation. The program is jointly administered by Dr. Mark A. Notestine, Executive Director of the Brody Foundation and President of the ECU Medical & Health Sciences Foundation, notestinem14@ecu.edu and Renée Safford-White, Coordinator for the Brody Scholar Program, and your contact person for all items related to the Brody Foundation and Brody Scholars Program activities, saffordwhiter@ecu.edu.

Other members of the faculty advisory group: Dr. Mark Stacy, Dean, The Brody School of Medicine, Dr. James Peden, Associate Dean for Admissions, Dr. Kendall Campbell, Interim Senior Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, and book discussion leaders Drs. Jason Higginson and Todd Savitt. The Brody Scholars Program is North Carolina's most distinguished medical scholarship.

*Eyal Press - “Beautiful Souls”

From Barnes and Nobles Book Description Overview

History has produced many specimens of the banality of evil, but what about its flip side, what impels ordinary people to defy the sway of authority and convention? Through these dramatic stories of unlikely resisters, Eyal Press’ Beautiful Souls shows that the boldest acts of dissent are often carried out not only by radicals seeking to overthrow the system but also by true believers who cling with unusual fierceness to their convictions. Drawing on groundbreaking research by moral psychologists and neuroscientists, this deeply reported work of narrative journalism examines the choices and dilemmas we all face when our principles collide with the loyalties we harbor and the duties we are expected to fulfill.
