

Clerkship Grading: Shelf Examinations

A passing score on the clerkship shelf exams is established school wide as a minimum of the tenth percentile based on the most current national percentile table for the examination at the time of administration. Clerkships may establish a passing grade higher than the tenth percentile.

If a student fails the clerkship, then the student must repeat the clerkship prior to their senior year.