I. Call to Order

II. Special Orders

A. Welcome Dr. Lloyd Novick, Department of Public Health Chair

1. Dr. Novick has generously agreed to provide dinner at the meetings this semester.

2. Graduation

a. Logistics

- The University's graduation will be held on Friday, May 8, 2009, and the Medical School's graduation is 8 am on Saturday, May 9, 2009.
- As we would like to have the Dean of the medical school attend our recognition ceremony, the Department's ceremony will be held on Saturday after the medical school's ceremony (approximate time= 11 or 12).
- The recognition ceremony will consist of a welcoming address from Dean Cunningham, a keynote address, and then the recognition of graduates.
- A reception will be held for family and friends.

b. Requirements

- In order to officially graduate, a student must complete all 45 credits and present their professional paper by May 1st.
- If students are close to graduating (have completed 44 credits), which will be determined by their professional paper instructor, they will be allowed to be hooded and "walk" in the recognition ceremony.

c. Keynote Speaker

- At last May's ceremony, the former NC State Health Director, Dr. Leah Devlin, was the keynote speaker.
- Faculty and students may submit their suggestions to the Department. We would like the speaker to be a person who is visible in public health, reflecting well on our program.

3. Professional Papers

- a. The final professional paper draft is due April 10th and the presentation must be scheduled soon thereafter.

- B. Welcome DPH Faculty Attendees
1. Elizabeth recognized the other faculty and staff that were in attendance (Dr. Bethel, Dr. Moore, Ms. Little, Bethany Reynolds). She thanked Dr. Novick for the food and began reviewing items on the agenda.
- III. Officer Reports
