

Lauren Lumley

HIPAA Compliance Specialist

252-744-0420

perryl@ecu.edu

Ms. Lumley is the HIPAA Compliance Specialist within the ECU HIPAA Security Office. Her duties include overseeing and managing regulatory compliance related to the availability, integrity, and confidentiality of electronic protected health information that is used for clinical decision making and healthcare operations throughout East Carolina University. Ms. Lumley is also involved with the HIPAA privacy and compliance responsibilities of the office that may include: investigations, communications, and education. Ms. Lumley received her Bachelor of Science in Communication from East Carolina University. Ms. Lumley began working at East Carolina University in 2012 with the Office of Intuitional Integrity as the Administrative Support Associate.