LABORATORY INTERNSHIP EVALUATION

First, Second, Third Internship
(Circle One)
MCBI 7498

NAME: ____________________________________________

DATE: ________________________________

LABORATORY: _______________________________________

STUDENT REPORT: Attach the student report describing the laboratory experience. This report must include an introduction, a statement of the project goals, experimental strategy, pertinent results, and conclusions with references.

ADVISOR'S EVALUATION: In the space provided below, the Laboratory Advisor should describe the student's progress and performance in the laboratory.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

FINAL GRADE: __________

STUDENT SIGNATURE: ________________________________________________

ADVISOR SIGNATURE: ________________________________________________