

Aleea Toledo (1998) lives in Wilmington and works for the CDSA evaluating children from birth to 3 years of age. Her main interest is in pediatrics and believes the most interesting aspect of her job are the children she works with, especially those with Autism. In her free time, she enjoys surfing, weight training, and running.