

Anita Wyrick

Anita is a 1994 graduate and resides in Chesapeake, Virginia with her husband Tony and two children, Andrew and Julie. She has held various positions within Chesapeake Public Schools since graduation and now serves as the coordinator of assistive technology services. Anita received her Advanced Master's Degree in occupational therapy from Virginia Commonwealth University in 2003 and her Doctor of Occupational Therapy in 2008, also from VCU. She is currently specializing and presenting on Evidence-Based Practice for school therapists throughout Virginia and most recently at the national conference in Houston. Anita's hobbies include swimming, gardening, going to the beach, and crabbing along the waterways in Chesapeake. Her most memorable class event was wheelchair day and wiping out a brick wall.
