

Brad Myers

Brad and his wife Kellie live in New Bern, NC. Brad graduated in 1999. He has a master's degree in Health Education and Promotion from ECU as well. Currently, he is the Area Director for Carolina Therapy Services and a Health Instructor at Craven Community College. The most interesting aspects of his job include: program development, staffing, documentation compliance and operations. His specialty areas are: hospital settings, home health, and skilled nursing facilities. His hobbies include: spending time with his 1 year old boxer, working out and running, and going to the beach with his wife.