

Cheryl Tyndall

Cheryl graduated in 1992 and is currently living in Wilmington along with her husband John and their five year old son, Drew. Cheryl states that her most vivid memory is of gross anatomy - she says “who could ever forget that?” She currently is working at Oakdale Heights Assisted Living, Genesis Rehabilitation. Her previous jobs have been PCMH (Staff Therapist Psychiatry- 5yrs), Mariner Health (Skilled Nursing Facility – 3 yrs), ProActive Therapy (Outpatient Clinic Manager – 3yrs), Select Care (Patient Representative), and specializing in Joint Active Systems (JAS Static Progressive Stretch Products- 1yr). Her specialty areas are geriatrics and physical disabilities. Cheryl has had a lot of touching moments working with the geriatric population. She feels they are so wise and often make her realize how special life is and how important family can be. Cheryl’s hobbies include camping, scuba diving, ECU football, and landscaping.
