

Elizabeth (Gushee) Camp

Elizabeth graduated in 2004 and she now resides in Matthews, NC. She is married to Jay Camp. Her best class memory was her fieldwork in Guatemala. She is currently working at Touchstone Therapy, a private Peds clinic specializing in SI. She has also worked at PRN in inpatient at the hospital. Her specialty is sensory integration. Her hobbies are and always will be horses. In the future she wants to use hippo-therapy as a treatment tool for some of her clients.