

Emily Reid (1999) lives in Greenville and works as a therapist for the Lenior County School System. She has worked in geriatrics for years and is enjoying her first year in pediatrics because she gets to watch human development. She is currently attending Creighton University and working towards her OTD. She is married and has a 2- month old son.