

Erin Broadhurst, OTR/L
Class of 2000

Erin is currently living in Las Vegas, Nevada and works as a therapist in the Clark County School District. She has been a traveler occupational therapist since graduation and has worked in a variety of settings including: acute, inpatient, psych, skilled nursing, rehab, and school systems. She enjoys traveling all over the country and seeing so many of the amazing sites. She loves the outdoors and spends her free time canyoneering, hiking, climbing, and continuing to travel.