

Jennifer Walden (2002) lives in Raleigh and works in outpatient with adults and pediatrics. She also does in home pediatric therapy. She is particularly interested in hands and upper extremity rehab as well as pediatrics and enjoys working with a huge variety of clients. In her free time she enjoys listening to music, hanging out with friends, and painting pottery.