

Joanne (Stock) Seng

Joanne graduated in 1984 and she is currently living in Morganton, NC. She is married to Harry and she has three step-children. What she remembers most from ECU is gross anatomy. Her greatest accomplishment since graduating is receiving her Masters in occupational therapy from Boston University. She is currently working at J. Iverson Riddle Developmental Center where she's been working since graduation. Her specialty area is developmental disabilities. Her hobbies are weaving, knitting, and traveling. She hopes to do research in occupational therapy and developmental disabilities in the future.
