

Julianne Kennedy graduated with the class of 2002 and began her career working in a nursing home. Recently she has switched to employment with Therapeutic Life Center in Greenville, North Carolina to contract with a school system, and she is excited about this after having felt burned out by the nursing home job. She was married this past December.