

Kerri Schmedeke

Kerri graduated in 1997 and she is currently living in Summerville, SC. She is married to Kevin and they have three children, Katelyn, Daniel, and Megan. Her best class memories are gross anatomy class and labs. Having her children are her greatest accomplishments since graduating. She is currently a “stay at home mom”. She has worked in the hospital acute-care, in-patient, out-patient, hand therapy and home health. Her hobbies are outdoor activities and writing. She would like to work in pediatrics in the future.