

Nathan Black is a recent graduate of the class of 2003 and is currently working at a 29 bed acute care rehabilitation center in Murrells Inlet, South Carolina, and is enjoying living in his new house located a mile from the beach in Surfside Beach. He says “Life is grand, and I am having a blast as usual.”