

Pam Klinger, OTR/L

Class of 1987

Owner and CEO of Therapeutic Life Center, Inc. Greenville, NC

Ten years after graduating, Pam opened a private practice with a physical therapist colleague and in 2001 she started an occupational therapy practice called Therapeutic Life Center, better known as TLC. TLC currently employs between 12-15 occupational therapists and occupational therapy assistants as independent contractors. Additionally a physical therapist and a speech and audiology therapist work for TLC on a contract basis. TLC provides services to both adults and children.
