

Scharla Moss Keeton, graduate of the class of 1997, has worked as an occupational therapist for Granville County Schools in Oxford, North Carolina for the past five years. She also does additional contract OT work for a private pediatric agency. She enjoys providing OT services and working with children.