

Tracie Rogers

Tracie graduated in 1988. She lives in Greenville, NC and is currently the manager of inpatient occupational therapy services at Pitt County Memorial Hospital. She is interested in administration and physical disabilities. What she enjoys most about her job is promoting the profession and fostering professional development of her staff. In addition to her OT degree, she earned a mini-MBA certificate through ECU. She is married and has 2 children. Tracie enjoys gardening and water sports!