

Cheryl (Harris) Wigley

Cheryl graduated in 2006 and she currently lives in Matthews, NC. She is married to Kyle Wigley. Cheryl stated that her best memory at ECU was the OT whitewater rafting trip and making such wonderful “lifetime” friends. She is currently working at Child and Family Development in Charlotte, NC. She has had other positions in private practices and pediatric home health with a practice focus on Sensory Processing Disorder and handwriting difficulties. Cheryl states that her most exciting moment as a professional was “Creating and running her first handwriting camp this past summer”! Her hobbies are singing, planting flowers and spontaneous weekend trips.

