OF THE

PUBLIC HEALTH GRADUATE STUDENT ORGANIZATION

OF

EAST CAROLINA UNIVERSITY
BRODY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Last Updated 4.18.2018
ARTICLE ONE

Name

The name of this organization shall be the Public Health Graduate Student Organization of East Carolina University, hereinafter referred to as PHO.

ARTICLE TWO

Purpose

The purposes of this Council shall be to serve as the unified voice of the Master of Public Health and Doctor of Public Health graduate student body of East Carolina University. The PHO shall also promote and support the Master of Public Health/DrPH program in the continuous advancement of its standards. In addition, if funds permit, PHO will aid in the advancement of students’ studies through sponsorship of educational trips at both state, regional, and national conferences. Lastly, the PHO will facilitate camaraderie and unity among students through organized events, service opportunities, research, and community outreach.

ARTICLE THREE

Membership

Section 1. Membership in PHO shall be open to Master of Public Health students, DrPH students, faculty, and staff. Membership shall also be open to dual degree MD/MPH and DMD/MPH students.

Section 2. PHO will not unlawfully or illegally discriminate against any one person or group.

Section 3. Dues shall be twenty dollars per semester or thirty for the entire school year. Dues shall be paid to the PHO Treasurer by the second PHO general body meeting assembly of that semester. While it is understood that some students will participate without paying dues, official membership and membership rights are defined by payment of dues.

Section 4. Membership privileges include voting rights via general body meetings or absentee ballots, conference funding, cords for graduation, and no cover charge for PHO-funded events. You must be a member to also attend PHO-sponsored events. If not a member, a fee set by the Executive Board will be imposed. Non-members may be required to RSVP in advance to attend certain PHO-sponsored events.

Section 5. Active member status is defined as attending at least 2 general body PHO meetings a semester and involvement in at least one PHO-approved service event. Graduation cords will be awarded to active members who fulfill these requirements during 2 consecutive semesters prior to graduation.
A. Exceptions are made on a case to case basis for the General Body Meeting requirement. Common exceptions include:
   a. Internship or program requirements
   b. Distance Education students
   c. Work-related obligations- signed documentation required
      i. A letter from a supervisor or manager with an official signature indicating that a student is working during a PHO event and other similar forms of documentation.
   d. University excused absence

ARTICLE FOUR Officers

Section 1. The PHO Executive Council shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Historian, Student Liaison, and First Year Representative. All officers shall be responsible to the President.

Section 2. Newly elected PHO Executive Board will set the times and dates of the Executive Board meetings. The PHO Executive Board is required to meet at least once a month.

Section 3. All officers shall serve a one-year term expiring at the end of the spring semester. Upon retirement from office, each officer shall turn over to their successor all records of the organization in his/her possession.

ARTICLE FIVE
Elections

Section 1. Nominations shall be made at the PHO meeting prior to the elections meeting. Nominations may also be made via email to the Secretary and shall be closed one week before elections. In the event that a position does not receive a nomination, the executive board reserves the right to open that position to “on-the-spot” nominations during the general body meeting.

Section 2. A simple majority of the quorum established at the business meeting regarding election will be required to elect each officer. This vote must be secret ballot.

Section 3. Elections for PHO officers shall be held at least one month prior to the last day of exams in the Spring semester.

Section 4. In order to run for a PHO Executive Board position, the candidate must have been an active member in PHO the semester prior to running for office. The candidate must also have at least 6 completed course hours in the MPH program in order to be eligible. If these requirements are not met, the candidate may be eligible to run for a committee chair position. These requirements do not apply to the PHO Executive Board position of the First-Year Representative (they are encouraged to run for election during the first semester of the start of the MPH/DrPH program).

Section 5. The PHO Faculty advisor will be voted on by PHO membership at the end of the school year by a simple majority of the quorum.

Section 6. PHO Committee Chairs will be voted on by the PHO membership by the second general body meeting of the school year by a simple majority of the quorum.
ARTICLE SIX

Committees

Section 1. Both standing and ad hoc committees shall be appointed from members of PHO by the President as necessary.

Section 2. Standing committees include: Fundraising, Social, Service, and Constitutional.

A. Fundraising Committee- The duties of the Fundraising Committee will be to organize fundraising events, research funding opportunities, and assist the Treasurer as requested.

B. Social Committee – The duties of the Social Committee will be to research and organize social events, recreational activities, and any non-service or research function. The committee shall offer at least 2 social events per semester.

C. Service Committee – The duties of the Service Committee will be to research and organize service events for PHO members. All service events must be related to public health, as deemed by the committee. The committee shall offer at least 3 service events per semester. At least one service event per semester must directly impact the eastern North Carolina community.

D. Constitutional Committee – The Constitutional Committee will be comprised of the PHO Executive Board members. The committee shall review the PHO constitution at the start and close of every academic school year.

Section 3. Each committee shall have a committee chair to oversee all meetings and fulfillment of committee duties. A committee co-chair may also be created on an as-need basis as deemed by the committee chair.

A. Committee chairs must have been in the MPH program for at least a semester at the time of election. If no one interested in the position meets this qualification, first semester program members will be considered for the position.

B. Committee chairs shall fulfill duties as outlined in Chapter 4 of the Statutes.

ARTICLE SEVEN

Amendments

Section 1. Amendments to the PHO constitution may be proposed by any member or duly ad hoc committee of PHO.

Section 2. Amendments must be proposed in writing and submitted to the Secretary 48 hours prior to a regularly scheduled meeting. The President can make an exception if he/she feels it is necessary.

Section 3. Proposed amendments shall be adopted during a PHO meeting.
Section 4. Amendments to the Constitution must be made by a vote of two-thirds of the current PHO membership during a regularly scheduled PHO General Body Meeting.

Section 5. Amendments to the Statutes must be made by a vote of two-thirds of the current PHO membership during a regularly scheduled PHO General Body Meeting.

C. The right to practice and choose freely a religion
D. The right to assemble freely and peacefully
E. The right to petition subjects and issues deliberated between faculty and student.
F. The right to fair and equal treatment for all students charged with any violation of rules governing students, and the right to a fair hearing regarding those accusations.

CHAPTER SEVEN

Student Grievances/Concerns

Section 1. According to the ECU Dean of Students, “a grievance arises when a student believes, based on established administrative policies and procedures, that he or she has been treated in an arbitrary or capricious manner by a University department or a representative of the University.” All students have the right to file grievances with the ECU Dean of Students. However, if any student feels a concern should be handled within Department of Public Health, PHO shall offer support (defined in Section 4) to any student in the MPH program through the process described herein and after appropriate action has been taken upon the student(s) themselves as described in Section 2. Conflicts that are not related to the MPH Program, Department of Public Health, or PHO, and grades are not covered by the process herein.

Section 2. All concerns will be handled by the Chair of the Department of Public Health. Informal resolution of appeals is always the most desirable approach, and encouraged whenever possible. Before initiating a formal concern with the Chair, the student shall discuss the problem with the person or persons whose actions or decisions are being challenged within fourteen calendar days after the student receives notice of the adverse action or decision. The student is encouraged to document their attempt to address their concern and provide said documentation to the Chair upon filing their concern.

Section 3. In order to file a concern, the student(s) shall email the Chair with “Student Concern” in the subject line and request a time to meet with him/her to discuss it further. Upon meeting with the Chair, the student should be able to describe the specific action or behavior resulting in this concern, the date or period of time and location in which the action or behavior occurred, a listing of any and all individuals who witnessed any part of the incident in dispute, and their attempt to address the issue themselves.
Section 4. PHO Support
If the student would like the support of PHO before, during or after the formal concern process, the student shall notify the Student Liaison and/or the President. All information presented to the Student Liaison or the President with remain confidential.

CHAPTER EIGHT
PHO Conference Support
The PHO offers limited funding for current MPH, MD/MPH, DrPH, and DMD/MPH students to attend professional conferences related to public health. Travel, lodging, registration fees and poster preparation are examples of qualifying expenses. In order for students to be eligible to receive funding, they must be active members of PHO as outlined in Chapter 1 of these Statutes and have paid dues at the time of request and for the semester of travel.
