2.2.2 Admission by Exception

Some programs may recommend admission by exception for a limited number of applicants who do not qualify academically for regular admission, but have other offsetting strengths. Admission by exception requires the student to earn a minimum 3.0 GPA in the first nine or more completed hours to remain in the program. A hold is placed on the student’s registration for the subsequent term until grades are posted and can be evaluated by the Graduate School. Students admitted by exception can attain full graduate standing after completion of nine or more graduate credit hours with a minimum GPA of 3.0.
