

PIRATE RELOCATION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

East Carolina University's Human Resources is proud to offer the Pirate Relocation Assistance Program to new or prospective faculty/staff members, and their spouses. The Pirate Relocation Assistance Program is an excellent resource in recruitment of top talent and providing a top rate first impression of East Carolina University and the Pitt County/Greenville area.

RELOCATION PACKAGE

Human Resources has moved forward on these efforts by providing a relocation package consisting of brochures, flyers, magazines, etc. that provide information about East Carolina University and the Pitt County/Greenville area. The relocation packages are distributed to each college of the University. If you would like a relocation package for a new or prospective faculty/staff member and their spouses please contact your college's office and one can be provided. If your college's supply is exhausted, please contact me, Robyn Galloway in Human Resources, at 252-328-9861, and more will be provided immediately.

WEBSITE

New or prospective faculty/staff members and their spouses can also find relocation information on our website at:

http://www.ecu.edu/cs-admin/hr/Pirate_Relocation_Assistance_Program.cfm

EMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE AND COUNSELING

Human Resources is also assisting in the relocation of new or prospective faculty/staff members and their spouses by offering employment assistance and counseling to the new or prospective faculty/staff member's trailing spouse. They can be referred to me, Robyn Galloway in Human Resources, at 252-328-9861. They will receive information on the application process and current vacancies here at East Carolina. The spouse will also be provided general information on additional employers in the Pitt County/Greenville area.

ACADEMIC MOVES

The Pirate Relocation Assistance Program works in conjunction with a company called AcademicMoves. AcademicMoves is a comprehensive relocation service offered at no cost for relocating new hires to East Carolina University. They offer meaningful and cost-saving assistance concerning relocation issues such as weighing a real estate offer, selling a home, selecting a community, buying a home, moving possessions, etc. The AcademicMoves counselor will manage the entire relocation process for your recruit, again at no cost. You can find more information about AcademicMoves at the following website http://www.thetalbotgroup.net/pages/academicmoves_candidate.htm or by calling them at 866-404-0234. Another way to request their free services for your recruit, is to fill out the form found at this website address and fax it to 860-404-7720.

<http://www.ecu.edu/cs-admin/hr/upload/Authorizationforrelocationservices1.pdf>