1. Introduction

As required by North Carolina General Statute §116-143.7, beginning in the fall 2010 semester, undergraduate students who elect to take more than 140 degree-credit hours to complete a baccalaureate degree or more than 110% of the credit hours necessary to complete a five-year program will be subject to a 50% tuition surcharge. This regulation is described in The University of North Carolina Policy Manual 1000.1.5[G].

1.1. Credit hours to be counted shall include:

1.1.1. All regular credit hours attempted at East Carolina University, including failed courses, repeated courses, and grade replacements

1.1.2. All transfer credits accepted by East Carolina University

1.2. Credit hours to be excluded from the calculation of tuition surcharge:

1.2.1. Summer session and off-campus extension courses, taken at any institution of higher education

1.2.2. Credits earned by AP, CLEP, credit by examination, institutional advanced placement credit

1.2.3. Credit hours earned while enrolled as a high school student

1.2.4. Courses officially dropped or withdrawn according to University policy

1.2.5. The 140 semester hour limit applies only to students who take longer than eight regular term semesters enrolled in any institution of higher education to earn a 4-year baccalaureate degree or ten regular term semesters in a degree program designed by the UNC Board of Governors as a five-year program.

1.3. Students Subject to Tuition Surcharge

1.3.1. Students earning a first baccalaureate degree in a program that requires no more than 128 credit hours who take more than 140 credit hours.

1.3.2. Students earning a first baccalaureate degree in a board-approved program that requires more than 128 credit hours will be charged for all credit hours that exceed 110% of credit hours required for the degree.

1.3.3. Students pursuing multiple majors or degrees concurrently will be subject to tuition surcharge for all hours in excess of 110% of the required hours for the major/degree(s).

1.3.4. Students earning an undergraduate degree other than their first will be charged 110% of the minimum additional credit hours needed to earn the degree.

2. Waiver of Tuition Surcharge

Tuition surcharge is a fee required by the North Carolina General Statute §116-143.7, and is not an ECU fee. North Carolina General Statute §116-143.7 provides four categories for requesting a waiver. Waiver requests that do not fall into one of the four categories will not be considered.

2.1. North Carolina General Statute §116-143.7 provided the following situations as reasons for a waiver request of tuition surcharge:

2.1.1. Military Service Obligation verification of the students voluntary or involuntary performance of a duty in connection with service in the Armed Forces, Reserves, or National Guard, including, but not limited to:

- 2.1.1.1. Active duty
- 2.1.1.2. Active duty for training
- 2.1.1.3. Initial active duty for training
- 2.1.1.4. Inactive duty training

2.1.2. Serious Medical Debilitation certification issued by the treating health care professional(s) stating each of the following:

- 2.1.2.1. The approximate date on which the serious medical debilitation commenced
- 2.1.2.2. The extent to which the serious medical condition has impacted the students pursuit of a degree
- 2.1.2.3. The relevant and appropriate medical facts regarding the condition

2.1.3. Disability certification issued by the treating health care professional(s) stating each of the following:

- 2.1.3.1. The approximate date on which the Short/Term Disability commenced.
- 2.1.3.2. The extent to which the students physical or mental incapacity has impacted the students pursuit of a degree
- 2.1.3.3. The relevant and appropriate medical facts regarding the condition
- 2.1.3.4. That, to the best of the treating health care professionals knowledge, the students disability is not permanent

2.1.4. Other Extraordinary Hardship verification of any circumstances which, despite responsible handling, led to the substantial disruption or interruption of the students pursuit of a degree.

2.2. Procedure for requesting a waiver:

2.2.1. Waivers must be received and post marked no later than 30 business days after receiving notice of tuition surcharge. Students will be notified within 30 business days of the receipt of the waiver request of the committees decision.

- 2.2.1.1. Requests may be emailed to cas@ecu.edu
- 2.2.1.2. Requests may be faxed to (252)328-4232

2.2.1.3. Requests may be mailed or hand delivered to:
