

NC TEACH II Eligible School Districts & Charter Schools

Eligible School District

Eligible Charter School within this County

Eligible City School System within this County

Eligible School Districts receiving services by other Transition to Teaching grant projects.

Eligibility was determined by Title II, Part A legislation, 2006-07

Last updated May 3, 2007

Eligible NC TEACH II High-Need School Districts (LEAs)

Alleghany County Schools
Anson County Schools*
Asheville City Schools
Beaufort County Schools*
Bladen County Schools*
Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools
Clinton City Schools*
Edenton-Chowan Schools*
Guilford County Schools
Hoke County Schools
Hyde County Schools*
Jones County Schools*
Lexington City Schools*
Mount Airy City Schools
Newton Conover City Schools
Northampton County Schools*
Pamlico County Schools*
Richmond County Schools*
Scotland County Schools
Thomasville City Schools*
Wake County Schools
Yancey County Schools

Eligible NC TEACH II High-Need Charter Schools

Carter Community Charter
CG Woodson
Crossroads Charter High School
Dillard Academy
Grandfather Academy
Highland Charter
Hope Elementary
Kennedy Charter
Laurinburg Charter
Omuteko Gwamaziima
Provisions Academy
Quality Education Academy
Sallie B. Howard
Sugar Creek Charter
Torchlight Academy

* Marked School Districts (LEAs) are NC Model Teacher Education Consortium (MTEC) partners. Participants teaching in these districts may be eligible for approximately 50% tuition reimbursement through MTEC in addition to receiving their NC TEACH II stipend.

Other LEAs and Charter Schools that are eligible but that may already be receiving services by other Transition to Teaching programs include: Bertie, Lenoir, Onslow, Cumberland, Vance, Weldon City, Alpha Academy and Haliwa-Saponi Tribal. For more information on teaching in these LEAs or Charter Schools please send an email to ncteach2@northcarolina.edu.