Academic Standings:

Good Standing indicates that you have earned at least a 2.0 overall grade point average and are progressing toward graduation.

Academic Warning -- this means your GPA is under a 2.0 but you meet the eligibility standard GPA for the courses you have attempted and transferred in.

Academic Probation—this means your GPA is under a 2.0 and you are not meeting the eligibility standard GPA for the courses you have attempted and transferred in. If your GPA does not improve the next semester, you will be suspended the following semester.

You will remain on academic warning or probation until the required GPA is obtained or you are suspended.

ECU Academic Eligibility Standards
Hours Attempted at ECU or Transferred	Required Minimum Grade Point Average
1 – 29	1.6
30 -59	1.8
60-74	1.9
75 -	2.0
Graduation or Second Degree	2.0

If you are on academic probation during the semester, you can be academically eligible for the next semester by:

- Earning a 2.5 on 12 or more semester hours during the summer sessions or during a fall /spring semester.
- Being 5 or fewer quality points away from your minimum required cumulative grade point average.
- Meeting the required GPA at the end of summer sessions or semester.
- Using grade replacements to elevate your GPA.
- Granted an appeal from the Student Academic Appellate Committee.

Been on Academic Suspension Before?

- Academic suspension 1st indicates you have been suspended for one semester.
- Academic suspension 2nd indicates you have been suspended for two semesters.
- Academic suspension 3rd indicates you have been suspended and are only eligible to attend summer school until your academic deficiency has been corrected.

Calculating Your ECU GPA:

Each semester at ECU (term) is listed including the semester's academic standing and term GPA.

Overall GPA is calculated by dividing earned cumulative Quality Points and cumulative GPA hours as listed at the bottom of each semester on your transcript.

Semester GPA is calculated by dividing semester earned (current term) Quality Points by the semester (current term) GPA hours.
