Graduate Certificate in Assistive Technology
East Carolina University
College of Education

Who Participates in the Certificate Program?

- People with undergraduate degrees who work with children or adults with disabilities
- Teachers, occupational therapists, speech therapists, recreational therapists, rehabilitation counselors, physical therapists, music therapists, family members, and so on.

Now accepting applications for summer 2013
Deadlines: Summer 1: March 15, Summer II: May 1
Begin by visiting us at http://www.ecu.edu/cs-educ/ci/sped/at/gradcert.cfm
Frequently Asked Questions about the Assistive Technology Certificate

What Does the Certificate Prepare You to Do?

- Become school or clinic leader in assistive technology
- Use assistive technology to enhance a student's or client's functional performance

Is Any of the Certificate Online?

- It is 100% online

Are There Scholarships? What Does it Cost?

- For information about scholarship opportunities, contact Dr. Alana Zambone at zambonea@ecu.ecu
- In-state tuition = 212/semester hour
- Out-of-state = 792/semester hour

What is Included in the AT Certificate Program? Four 3-credit hour courses offered across summer sessions 1 and 2

- SPED 6701 Technology Devices and Services
- SPED 6702 Assessment, Planning and Implementation
- SPED 6703 Collaborative Resource Management with Assistive Technology
- One 3-hour elective, selected with your advisor

How can I get more information?

- Contact Dr. Melissa Engleman at atcenter@ecu.edu